(Please initial at each line)

- _____ The privileges of an auditor in a course are limited specifically to attending and listening.
- _____ The auditor assumes no obligation to do any of the work required of the course and is not expected to take any of the instructor's time.
- _____ The auditor does not submit any work, and is not eligible to take any tests or examinations nor to receive grades on all or any part of the course.
- _____ If a person who is not enrolled at the School of Law is granted permission to audit a course and subsequently applies and is granted admission to the School of Law, this course (or courses) cannot be taken for credit after matriculation.
- _____ Auditors must pay the regular tuition and fees for courses.
- _____ Auditors are not permitted to apply for admission to the J.D. program during the year in which they are attending classes.

Submission of this form constitutes a request. Requestors will be notified of their enrollment status by the Registrar after the appropriate approvals are sought.
