Because of the high ethical standards to which lawyers are held, I recognize that the failure to disclose an act or event relevant to my application, particularly those calling into question character, honesty, or integrity, is often more significant, and leads to more serious consequences, than the act or event itself. My failure to provide truthful answers, or to fail to inform immediately the Admissions Committee of any changes to my answers or personal circumstances may result in revocation of admission, disciplinary action or denial of permission to practice law by the State in which I seek admission. I certify that all statements are my own work and that the information provided in this application and all attachments is complete and accurate to the best of my information and belief. I have an ongoing obligation to inform the Admissions Office of any false or misleading statements and any changed circumstances within 30 days of my first notice of such events.

I certify that the statements and essays made in and for this application are my own work. I further certify that the information provided is complete and accurate. Should developments occur prior to enrollment in the University of Connecticut School of Law which make any of the foregoing information false or misleading, I will submit to the School of Law such additional information as may be required to make this application complete and accurate.
